

Case Control & Cohort Study designs

1 Week Short Course (April 29 to 3rd May, 2019)

Training Venue

School of Public Health,
3rd floor Medical college, SRM Deemed University,
Kattankulathur 603203, Chennai, INDIA

About the Course content

The one week training programme is designed to develop skills in design of Case control and cohort research studies Following topics will be covered

- Design and Logic of case control studies and Cohort studies
- Incidence measures and measures of Risk
- Study base principles and principles in selection of control
- Odds Ratio (OR), Equivalence of OR and Relative Risk
- Biases & Confounding- criteria for confounder
- Types of case control studies : Nested case control, Case cohort, density case controls
- Critical review of Case control studies papers

Registration fees

Rs 5,000 INR for one week course.. The registration fee includes only course fees and refreshments. The participants will have to bear the expenditure of food, lodging and boarding on their own. However information will be provided about near by hotels and budget paying guest house accommodation (Rs300 per day/ sharing basis)

Participants

Faculty, Postgraduate students, Health Researchers/ clinicians/Nurses/veterinarians/ and anybody involved with health care research

About the Faculty

Dr. Rajan R Patil is a Sr Epidemiologist, with over 15 years academic experience in Epidemiology and Public Health. He is specialized in Epidemiology from CMC Vellore and has a PhD in Public Health. He has been consultant epidemiologist to UNDP and WHO Disease surveillance programme. He has been instrumental in designing and developing Epidemiology course curriculum for graduate and post graduate/ masters programme at university level

For details please contact

Dr. Rajan R Patil

Course Coordinator

School of Public Health

SRM Deemed University, Chennai, Cell/whatsapp: 91+ 9445811610,

Email : rajan.p@ktr.srmuniv.ac.in